Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of Arunachala College of Engineering for Womens, Thanka Garden, Manavilai, Vellichanthai Post, Kanyakumari District, Tamilnadu-629203 a unit of M/S.Thottam Madhavan Educational and Charitable Trust

Report on the audit of the financial statements for the financial year 2021-2022

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Arunachala College of Engineering for Womens, Thanka Garden, Manavilai, Vellichanthai Post, Kanyakumari District, Tamilnadu-629203 a unit of M/S.Thottam Madhavan Educational and Charitable Trust which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2022, the Statement of Income and Expenditure and Receipts and Payments Account for the year then ended on that date.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, except for the effects of the matters described in the basis for qualified opinion section of our report, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and are prepared in all material respects, in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, of the state of affairs of the Entity as at March 31, 2022, and its surplus for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

The Entity has not ascertained the quantum of liability towards employee benefits as required under AS15 to the extent applicable. Therefore no provision is made towards Gratuity and other liabilities under employee benefits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards on auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Entity in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the code of ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibility of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the Financial Statements and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statement that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management of the entity is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to close the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Management (or Those Charged with Governance) is also responsible for overseeing the entity's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us the said accounts give the information required;

- i. In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Institution as at 31st March 2022.
- ii. In the case of the Income and Expenditure account, of the Excess of Income over Expenditure for the year ending on 31st March 2022 and
- iii. In the case of Receipts and Payment account the total receipts and payments for the year ending 31st March 2022.
